A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Scholder et al. 5831821. Scholder et al. teach a shelf unit for use in a rack for communication equipment including back body side panels 58 having L-shaped slots 58e and having front and rear ends and defining a space capable of containing PCB's, a back body with side plates having connecting members 34b.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and are cited on the attached PTO 892.
